

Canadian Military Education Centre (CMEC) Museum helps our Poppy Drive.

Mark Ivins of the Sheriffs' Office and a member of the Canadian Military Education Centre (CMEC) Museum will be setting up a display of military vehicles and mannequins dressed in Canadian Military uniforms from the 1st and 2nd World Wars in Sevenoaks Mall next to the Branch 15 Poppy Table.

Mark organized and provided the vintage military vehicles that our branch 15 veterans rode in on Canada Day this year. Last year the CMEC also set up a Remembrance Day display with their vehicles, and mannequins dressed in Canadian Soldiers' uniforms, in Sevenoaks Mall adjacent to where our branch has its poppy table.

I gratefully accepted Mark's kind offer to do the same this year as this greatly increases the people who come to our poppy table as well. The mannequins dressed as Canadian Soldiers one in World War One uniform from 1916 and another in World War Two D-Day battledress. (We got to have these at our table last year when the CMEC left).

Vintage military vehicles with branch 15 veterans John Molnar, Andy Anderson and Dan Norgaard on Canada Day.

(submitted by PWS)